

The Minutes,

Being a Record of the Hitchcock House Council

(that august body having been called together to deliberate matters of much import).

At a regular meeting of the Hitchcock House Council, held in their hall, the Green Room, on Thursday evening, the Fourteenth of February in this year of our Lord 2007, with the president Mr. Arthur in the chair, and Mr. Driscoll acting as secretary, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved¹. The Committee on the Coffee House, represented by Miss Fioritto, reported on the lack of artwork which had been entered. Mr. Falkowitz inquired into the nature of the works to be accepted and received the answer that literary works for reading, dramatic or otherwise, were welcome, in addition to visual art. The Committee on Social Events, represented by Miss Pelka and Miss Gilbert, informed the council that it would be wise to hie oneself to the aquarium, as it is presently free of charge, while Mr. Franklin, acting on behalf of an external organization, Fire Escape Films, extolled the virtues of participating in the upcoming 48-hour film festival. Another council member, Mr. R. Knox, acting likewise on behalf of an external organization, the Inter-House Council, expressed his desire that House members inscribe their names upon a sheet listing those who are participating in the Battle of the Bulbs, as if many people do so, the council could benefit. The representative from Happy-Ass Rat Catchers, Mr. Harris, was present but had little to report. The Representatives from Sections One, Two, Three, and Four had nothing to report, while the Representative from Section Five was not present, being absent upon a mission from God. On motion from Miss Manaster, the Representative from Section Five, viz., Mr. Raman, was impeached. The meeting was adjourned at 10:32 P.M.

Resolved, That the Right Honourable member from Section 5, Mr. Raman, be impeached upon charges of failure to post minutes for two weeks running.

Resolved, That Representative-At-Large, Mr. Weese, defeated Representative-At-Large, Mr. Conkle, on a race around the world.

Announced, That all House members were invited to the Recreation Room at 10:00 P.M. on Sunday for to watch City Slickers 2, purchased by Mr. R. Knox on behalf of the Committee for Bad Movies for .78¢.

Announced, That Section Jeopardy was to be held at 6:30 P.M. on Friday, the 23rd of February. On general acclamation the council adjourned at 10:32 P.M.

Recorded by E. W. Driscoll, Secretary.
Publicized 17 Feb 2007.

¹ In a manner which involved neither reading nor approval, nor, indeed, mention at all. [-Eds.]

Events

Ongoing

Next week: The aquarium is free. Go visit!

Battle of the Bulbs: Continue to conserve electricity, and step it up! Turn your bathroom's lights out when you're not using them.

Sunday

10:00 PM: Bad Movie Night in the Rec Room. City Slickers 2.

Wednesday

Evening sometime: mandatory meeting for Fire Escape's 48 Hour Film Festival. Dave should be sending out details – email him if interested in forming a House team.

Thursday

10:00 PM: House meeting. Come speak your mind on the latest political crisis to ripple through Section Five. Will Neil prove to be as bulletproof as his charismatic predecessor, M. Gallop?

Friday

6:30 PM: Section Jeopardy chez Mark "Games" Conkle.