

The True Minutes

Fair like Skin, Balanced like Yin and Yang

That which follows is the minutes of the Hitchcock House Meeting conducted on Thursday, January 24th, 2013. Resident heads Tom and Megan Wood notified residents that the House System Survey for 2012-13 has been emailed to all residents and implored everyone to complete said survey. Resident Assistants Maggie Borowitz and Evan Hernandez notified residents of the upcoming Study Break to be held on Sunday, January 27th, in the Green Room. They will also be accepting ideas for future house trips. Resident Master's Assistant Kirsten Olson notified residents that the masters will be holding tea on Friday, January 25th, with guest Patrick Jagoda, English professor specializing in Trans-Media Games. Snell Vice President Simon Swanson had nothing to report. President John Bobka read item number #173 from last year's Scav Hunt and then proceeded to notified residents that Midterm Elections will be held at the meeting of Thursday, February 7th. Vice President Sophie Holtzmann notified the residents that Hitchcock House had the single highest attendance of any house on campus to January 19th's day of service. Secretary Jay Cushing notified current Section Representatives that the posting of the House Minutes is a responsibility of their job. Treasurer Alaina Bompiedi notified the residents that the current total of House Funds stands at $251.00. Historian Isabelle Langrock notified residents that the house meeting of January 31st will be canceled in order to accommodate for House Meeting: The Musical. IM Sports Representative Kevin Vollrath notified the residents of the upcoming Broomball game to take place on Tuesday, January 29th and that there will be no Indoor Soccer game this week. Further details forthcoming. Social Chairs Leah Hirschfeld and Alana Hart notified the residents that there will be a Doodle Poll coming out on which residents may select their preference for future social events. Wellness Czar Theresa Peng displayed a desire for a menstrual cup. Bartlett Representative Abigail Shearrow notified the residents that no meeting had been held by the Bartlett Board. PSAC Representative Robert Lipman read a laudatory email from a prospective student hosted by Hitchcock House Fall Quarter of 2012 and then notified the residents that the Office of Admissions was issuing a challenge to four houses. The details of the challenge are as follows: The house that displays the highest percentage (minimum of 75%) of prospective students per resident during the two prospective student weekends in April will be rewarded $500 to that house's house fund. HARC and IHC

Representatives were not in attendance. All Section Representatives, except that of Section Three, were in attendance and had nothing pertinent to report. During House Business, due to negligence of duties, Michael Wang was impeached by the residents of Section Three. Natalie Wright was voted temporary allocation of duties and title. The issue of the broken Mortal Kombat coin machine in the Rec Room was brought up by a resident. A vote was called on the issue of separating from Snell House in relation to IM Sports due to Snell House's inability to split the necessary funding to engage in IM Sports. After twenty minutes of debate no verdict was reached and residents voted to table the issue. During General Announcements no announcements were made. As a supplement, Emily Ehrmantraut would like to notify residents of the UBallet performance of Spartacus the weekend of February 2nd. The performance will feature residents Jay Cushing, Emily Ehrmantraut, Alison Newman, and Kirsten Olson.