

There was a long drawn out parody of West Side Story in the minutes. Instead of the Sharks and the Jets, there the Born Again Christians in Section 4 and the party-goers in Section 3. The whole parody is way too long and dependent on inside jokes to make much sense now (and frankly was kinda self-indulgent back then) so here are the two highlights. The first song is the Christians explaining themselves and the second song involves Section 3 girls arguing with students in Woodward about whether or not to transfer to Northwestern.

(To the tune of the "Jets Song")

James: When you're Christian you're Christian all the way,
From your First Communion to our Lord's Judgment day.
When you're Christian, when your friend reads the Koran
You know Christ is around, make your friend a born again man.

All: You're never alone, You've got your own section
The Green room's your own, when company's expected,
You're well protected!
Then you are set with a Capital C,
Which you'll never forget every Bible study.
When you're Christian, YOU STAY CHRISTIAN!

[Conversation about Bible Study]

(Still to the tune of the "Jet's song")

Alan, Dan: When you're Christian, Christ's the top guy in town,
He's the gold hearted mensch with the prickly thorn crown
Eric, Alan, Dan: When you're Christian, you're the do-goodingest thing,
My son you've got God, God's son Christ is your king!

ALL: Reckoning is near,
Lord we hear your clock ticking,
Section 3'll stay clear,
'Cause ev'ry drunken heathen's a lousy chicken!

Here we are Christian, up Section 4's stairwell,
Someone gets in Christ's way, someone's going to Hell,
Here come the Christians, U of C step aside,
Better go off downtown, better run, better hide.

It's prayer meeting time, so keep your idols hidden,
We're hanging a sign, Says "Blasphemy forbidden"
And we're not kidding.

Here come the Christians, Yeah! and we're gonna scorn,

Ev'ry last gosh darn sect in the whole gosh darn dorm!
In the whole Virgin Mary-loving dorm!
